This week's key question:

What is causing the wildfires in California?

It's been another busy week at Roby Mill with plenty of hard work and exciting learning taking place.

Key Stage Two have been trying hard with their Maths work on fractions and decimals. Key Stage One have been enjoying reading Little Red Riding Hood and Reception have loved saving animals Spinderella's web!

Compass Bloom are offering a range of mental health and wellbeing support sessions including one on sleep. More information can be found on Class dojo. They have also sent a link to Padlet which is an online resource offering guidance and links on a range of topics. There is also a link to the resources on our school website.

Keys Stage Two are currently designing a Dementia twiddle muff which is a calming tool used by people suffering from dementia. We are looking for any spare collage bits, material, ribbon, buttons etc which could be sewed onto fabric, Any donations would be greatly appreciated.
